This stunning home currently under construction is available now for purchase. An absolute bargain and under replacement cost, the spacious home is a show stopper. A textured modern design facade, leads you into a home that is light and airy, wide hallways, 2.7 ceilings, classic finishes, with timber vinyl flooring, neutral tones and quality fixtures. The raked ceilings in the living area really set off the home and having the living area at the rear of the house gives your entertaining moments some definite WOW factor. The master bedroom has an oasis ensuite and parents private retreat, and the kiddies have their own wing with their own living space as well. We want to leave some surprises for our grand opening, so more details will be on application. The home is currently required for a lease back of a minimum of 2 years at a very generous rental return. Call now, you will not be disappointed.
