Build with WOW Factor

We love the Queensland lifestyle of bringing outside in, so we have designed a beautiful home that does just that. A gorgeous open plan layout, this flowing home just screams luxury. A parents suite with a spacious walk in robe and ensuite is located at the opposite end of the home so the kids or visitors have their own space and privacy too. The large sweeping foyer certainly gives you a WOW on entering, with the media room positioned on it's own so you can create the perfect cinematic experience. Ideal for a corner block or land with a generous frontage, you will certainly get your neighbours attention with this designer home, complete with large front porch and statement entry.
