Multi Family Living

When you have wide block or acreage you want to make the most of it. The design would be great for a home office set up or working from home with the study/4th bedroom near the front entry. Every other bedroom has it's own bathroom so if you have extended family or older kids, each person has their own facilities. A unique design that suits a unique family set up. An open plan living flowing out onto the generous alfresco and a separate media room also makes sure there is plenty of living space for everyone.
