A Design to Die For!

If you are looking for a home that caters for every need, then this is it! 4 generous bedrooms of course, with the master suite a massive oasis. So much robe space, even the most enthusiastic shopper will have trouble filling the space. Three very spacious living areas, including that open plan family living we all love. A great sized study that could be a home office or a 5th bedroom. And of course, every chefs dream, a pantry that fits everything you could possibly need and more! And why not shake it up the design by converting to a facade with squared parapets to give it that uber modern feel?
